

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

The School of Music offers the Master of Music degree, a Graduate Certificate in Instrumental Performance, a Graduate Certificate in Music Pedagogy (Instrumental, Piano, or Voice), and a Graduate Certificate in Music Theory Pedagogy.

- Master of Music – Conducting Emphasis (Instrumental or Choral) (p. 1)
- Master of Music – Music Education Emphasis (p. 2)
- Master of Music – Performance Emphasis (Instrumental or Vocal) (p. 2)
- Master of Music – Performance and Pedagogy Emphasis (Instrumental, Piano, or Vocal) (p. 2)

Master of Music Degree

The Master of Music degree program in the School of Music is currently accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music.

The Master of Music degree offers the opportunity for qualified students to pursue advanced study in music with an emphasis in Conducting, Performance, Music Education, or Performance and Pedagogy.

The Master of Music degree is designed to develop and foster high achievement in performance and teaching; to prepare the student for a career as a performer, conductor, or educator; or to serve as a basis for pursuing doctoral studies in music.

Program Admission Requirements

In addition to satisfying the University-wide admission requirements, applicants are expected to hold the Bachelor of Music degree or Bachelor of Music Education degree with a major in their intended area of graduate emphasis or the equivalent, submit two recommendations from established professionals commenting on the appropriateness of graduate study in music for the applicant, complete a statement of intent concerning graduate school, and successfully complete one of the following audition requirements based on the desired option within the four emphases:

Choral and Instrumental Conducting

Provide a recent 20-30 minute video (private YouTube link) demonstrating the level of mastery in rehearsal and performance situations. Candidates will be invited to on-campus audition and placement examinations after pre-screening.

Music Education

Submit a 20 minute digital video of classroom teaching (private YouTube link), documentation of teaching experience (résumé or curriculum vita), and a self-composed short essay (1-2 pages) that describes the reasons for becoming a teacher, commitment to music education, and future career goals. Candidates will be invited to campus for music education faculty interview and placement examinations after pre-screening.

Instrumental Performance

Prepare 20-30 minutes of music for an in-person audition (or with acceptable justification approved by the auditioning committee, provide a recent high-quality recording via private YouTube link) demonstrating the level of mastery in the proposed performance medium. Some instrumental areas may require candidates to submit a pre-screening video. Candidates will also complete placement examinations on scheduled audition date.

Vocal Performance

Provide a recent video of a minimum of two selections (private YouTube link) demonstrating the level of mastery in the proposed performance medium for pre-screening. Candidates will be invited to on-campus audition and placement examinations after pre-screening.

Instrumental Performance and Pedagogy

Prepare 20-30 minutes of music for an in-person audition (or with acceptable justification approved by the auditioning committee, provide a recent high-quality recording via private YouTube link) demonstrating the level of mastery in the proposed performance medium. Candidates will also complete placement examinations on scheduled audition date.

Piano Performance and Pedagogy

Prepare 20-30 minutes of music for an in-person audition (or with acceptable justification approved by the auditioning committee, provide a recent high-quality recording via private YouTube link) demonstrating the level of mastery in the proposed performance medium. Candidates will also complete placement examinations on scheduled audition date.

Vocal Performance and Pedagogy

Provide a recent video of a minimum of two selections (private YouTube link) demonstrating the level of mastery in the proposed performance medium for pre-screening. Candidates will be invited to on-campus audition and placement examinations after pre-screening.

Placement Examinations

Students in all emphases are required to take placement examinations in music theory, aural skills, and music history, and, where appropriate, complete the corresponding review classes before taking graduate topics courses in music history and music theory.

Placement examinations are administered on official audition days.

Degree Requirements

The minimum number of semester credit hours required for this degree, exclusive of coursework or other study required to remove admission deficiencies, is 32 or 33 hours, depending on the emphasis. Only courses with a grade of "B-" or higher may apply toward coursework for the Master of Music degree.

Special Degree Requirements

Candidates for the Master of Music degree with an emphasis in Conducting or Performance must complete a total of 32 semester credit hours. Candidates for the Master of Music degree with an emphasis in Music Education or Performance and Pedagogy must complete a total of 33 semester credit hours.

In addition to the semester credit hours set forth above, candidates for the Master of Music degree are required to successfully pass comprehensive examinations tailored to the student's program and area of emphasis.

Degree candidates for each respective program must complete the following requirements:
